NIMRODS KILL TWELVE DEER ON THEIR TRIP

After a week in the wilds of northern Washoe in the vicinity of Granite mountain eight hunters brave and bold last night returned to Reno crowned with success of the hunt.

They went out looking for deer and they found them. In all they shot twelve and not a hunter but shot at least one of the fleet footed animals. It was a great hunting trip and will go down in the annals of sportdem as one of the most successful expeditions of western Nevada.

All of the hunters are sun burned and bewiskered, but all show signs of good living and the pleasures of out door life. The deer are now in the cold storage plant of the Nevada Packing company and will soon be cut up and distributed among the hunters and their friends.

The hunters brought two of the deer in with them last night in their autos and the others were shipped in by train to the cold storage plant.

Those who enjoyed the trip were Gurney Gordon, Engineer McKenle of the Goldfield Consolidated; Bert-ram Nixon, Charles Sadler, Eddie Smith, Burns Caldwell, George Wingfield and Ole Elliot.—Reno Gazette.

SUMMONS.

IN THE DISTRICT COURT OF the Fifth Judicial District of the State of Nevada in and for the County of Nye.

Ellen G. Oddie, Alice T. Oddie and Montana-Tonopah Mining Company, a corporation, plaintiff, vs. Mae Zawaskie, John Doe, Richard Roe, Peter Doe and Jane Doe, defendants.

Action brought in the District Court of the Fifth Judicial District of the State of Nevada, in and for the County of Nye, and the complaint filed in said County of Nye, in the office of the Clerk of said District Court.

The State of Nevada sends greetings to Mae Zawaskie, John Doe, Richard Roe, Peter Doe and Jane Doe, or defendants.

You are hereby required to appear in an action brought against you by the above-named plaintiff in the District Court of the Fifth Judicial District of the State of Nevada, in and for the County of Nye, and to answer the complaint filed therein, within ten days (exclusive of the day of service) after the service on you of this summons, if served within this county; or, if served out of this county, but in this district, within twenty days; otherwise, within forty days; or judgment by default will be taken against you, according to the prayer of said complaint.

The said action is brought to quiet title to the "Miriam" mining claim, adjoining the "Montana-Tonopah group on the north, situated in the Tonopah Mining district, Nye county, Nevada; and to compel the defendants to set forth the nature of any adverse claims to said property and any claim they, or any of them, may have to any interest or right to or in said property or any part thereof; and to obtain from said court a judgment and decree declaring the plaintiffs to be the sole and absolute owners of said property and declaring the defendants, and each of them, to be utterly without any right, title or interest to or in said property; and debarring each and all of the defendants from asserting any claim whatsoever in or to said "Miriam" mining claim or any part thereof; and granting such further relief as to the court may seem proper.

And you are further notified that if you fail to appear and answer said complaint as above required, said plaintiff will apply to the court for the relief demanded therein.

Given under my hand and the seal of the District Court of the Fifth Judicial District of the State of Nevada, in and for the County of Nye, this 26th day of August, in the year of our Lord one thousand nine hundred and ten.

ISSUE WARRANTS BY THE WHOESALE UP IN RENO

Carrying out his statement made at the meeting of the city council on Monday night, Chief of the Fire Department Webster, swore out complaints against all offenders who have failed to comply with the fire escape ordinance, says the Reno Journal.

Eleven complaints were issued after being sworn to by the chief, and the warrants were served on the defendants last evening by the police department. The short dozen will appear before Magistrate Stan- away this morning.

The complaints are criminal in nature, not misdemeanors as might be supposed. The lives of the inmates of the building of which the owners were served, have been placed in jeopardy owing to the failure to install proper fire fighting and fire preventing devices. Many additional fire escapes that were ordered on many buildings have not been forthcoming.

Those for whom warrants were issued were the owners of the following buildings: Nevada Hardware and Supply company; Hotel Espanol, 142 Center street; Hotel Ventura, Thoma-Bigelow building, Andrencetti building, Sierra brewery, Manning building, Butchers' Home, St. Albans hotel and Virginia hotel.

Mr. James, one of the defendants, is a member of the grand jury that reported recently that Chief Webster was not enforcing the fire escape ordinance, even after their former report made last spring. Messrs. Mitchell, Maxson and Stadtmuller of the fire escape committee of the grand jury will substantiate Chief Webster's charges.

The buildings involved are all from three to six stories in height. All are equipped with fire escapes, but the ladders do not reach from the ground to the roof in most cases. Several other arrests would have been made were it not for the fact that offenders have begun work on complying with the law in the past few days.

WRITES A POEM ON THE PASSING OF GAMBLING

WRITES POEM.

E. A. Brininstool, who writes poetry for the Los Angeles Express, has penned the following poem to the enforcement of the anti-gambling law in Nevada:

Why Red Eye Is Aroused.

(On October 1 all gambling must cease in Nevada, the last state in the union to pass an anti-gambling law.)

There is mournin' down at Red Eye an' th' gang is filled with gloom.
Since th' news has reached us sayin'
that th' gambler's met his doom;
Fer they say our politicians hev decided 'taint in style

Fer to separate th' tenderfoot strangers from their pile.

Three-card monte ain't in favor, an'
roulette don't stand no show;

Even faro has been frowned on an'
dice shakin's got t' go;

An' th' only thing that's left us fer
to sort o' salve our woes,

Is a round er two at checkers, er a game o' dominoes.

Once th' gambler had his innin' an'
could skin a victim clean,

But such doin's here in Red Eye
soon no longer will be seen,

Fer th' ol' west is a-ladin' sence th'
east is movin' in,

An' th' chance t' make a livin' is agettin' mighty thin.

They hev sinched our cards an'
tables, an' th' news came in today

That we got t' earn our livin' in a different sort o' way;

An' th' marshal up an' warned us
that we hadn't better try

Any tricks while he was bossin' law
an' order in Red Eye;

Why, th' gang is plumb disgusted
at th' way th' law is run;

Purty soon they'll be declarin' that a man can't pack a gun;

I don't savey how it happened, but they's somethin' wrong, you bet.

When they try to separate us from our poker and roulette.
